

Here is a list of my book recommendations ... if you are going to include some of these books for children to self-select it is important to remember that the books should be placed on a shelf that children can easily reach. A great idea would be to create a comfy reading area with a few books in a basket or a crate. Books should also be rotated (which means removing books and replacing them with different ones). Books should also be checked frequently for any missing or torn pages.
