

Christmas Song Book

Lyrics and Art By Shelley Lovett

Children love music and singing. The Christmas Song Book contains easy to learn songs that are sung to familiar tunes. You can do these songs at group time or at a transition time. I have included patterns that can be printed on cardstock paper and laminated. For some songs I make enough for everyone in the class so the song becomes interactive. For other songs I put the pieces on a feltboard or magnetic board.

Children learn through play and repetition so sing the song more than once ... they will soon catch on.

I hope you enjoy these original songs and that the children have a wonderful time learning and singing.

Where Is Santa? (Sung To Where Is Thumbkin)

Where is Santa?

Where is Santa?

Here I am ... Here I am...

I'm so glad to see you....

I'm so glad to see you....

Ho Ho Ho ... Ho Ho Ho.

This is a great song to use a Santa Stick Puppet with. Hide the Santa behind your back and bring him out when singing "hear I am".

Ten Little Gingerbread Cookies

(sung to 10 Little Indians)

One little ... two little ... three little gingerbread cookies...
four little... five little ... six little gingerbread cookies....
seven little ... eight little ... nine little ... gingerbread cookies...
Ten little yummy gingerbread cookies.

Gingerbread Cookies Are Coming To Town

(sung to London Bridges Falling Down)

Gingerbread cookies are coming to town...
coming to town... coming to town....

Gingerbread cookies are coming to town...
so we can eat them (rub tummy).

I'm a Little Reindeer (sung to I'm a little teapot)

I'm a little reindeer with a big red nose.
I help pull Santa's sleigh through the wind and cold.
When it's dark and foggy I'll show the way ...
So all the little children have fun on Christmas Day.

The Reindeers (sung to Farmer in the Dell)

The reindeers pull Santa's sleigh...
The reindeers pull Santa's sleigh...
Up and down and all around ...
The reindeers pull Satna'sleigh.

Christmas Trees

(sung to The Wheels on the Bus)

The Christmas trees are pretty and bright...
pretty and bright... pretty and bright...

The Christmas trees are pretty and bright
on this snowy night.

The Christmas trees are tall and green...
tall and green... tall and green.

The Christmas trees are tall and green
on this snowy night.
