

A circular watermelon slice with a pink rind, black seeds, and a green dotted pattern. The number 24 is written in white in the center.

24

A circular watermelon slice with a pink rind, black seeds, and a green dotted pattern. The number 25 is written in white in the center.

25

A circular watermelon slice with a pink rind, black seeds, and a green dotted pattern. The number 26 is written in white in the center.

26

27

28

29

A circular watermelon slice with a pink rind, black seeds, and a green dotted pattern. The number 27 is written in white in the center.

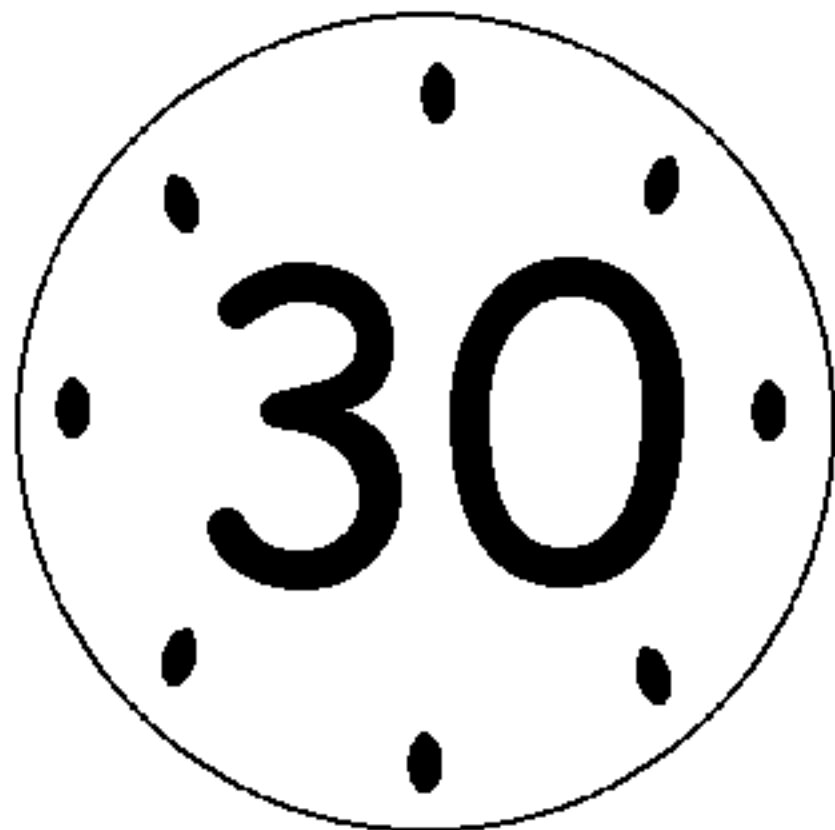

27

A circular watermelon slice with a pink rind, black seeds, and a green dotted pattern. The number 28 is written in white in the center.

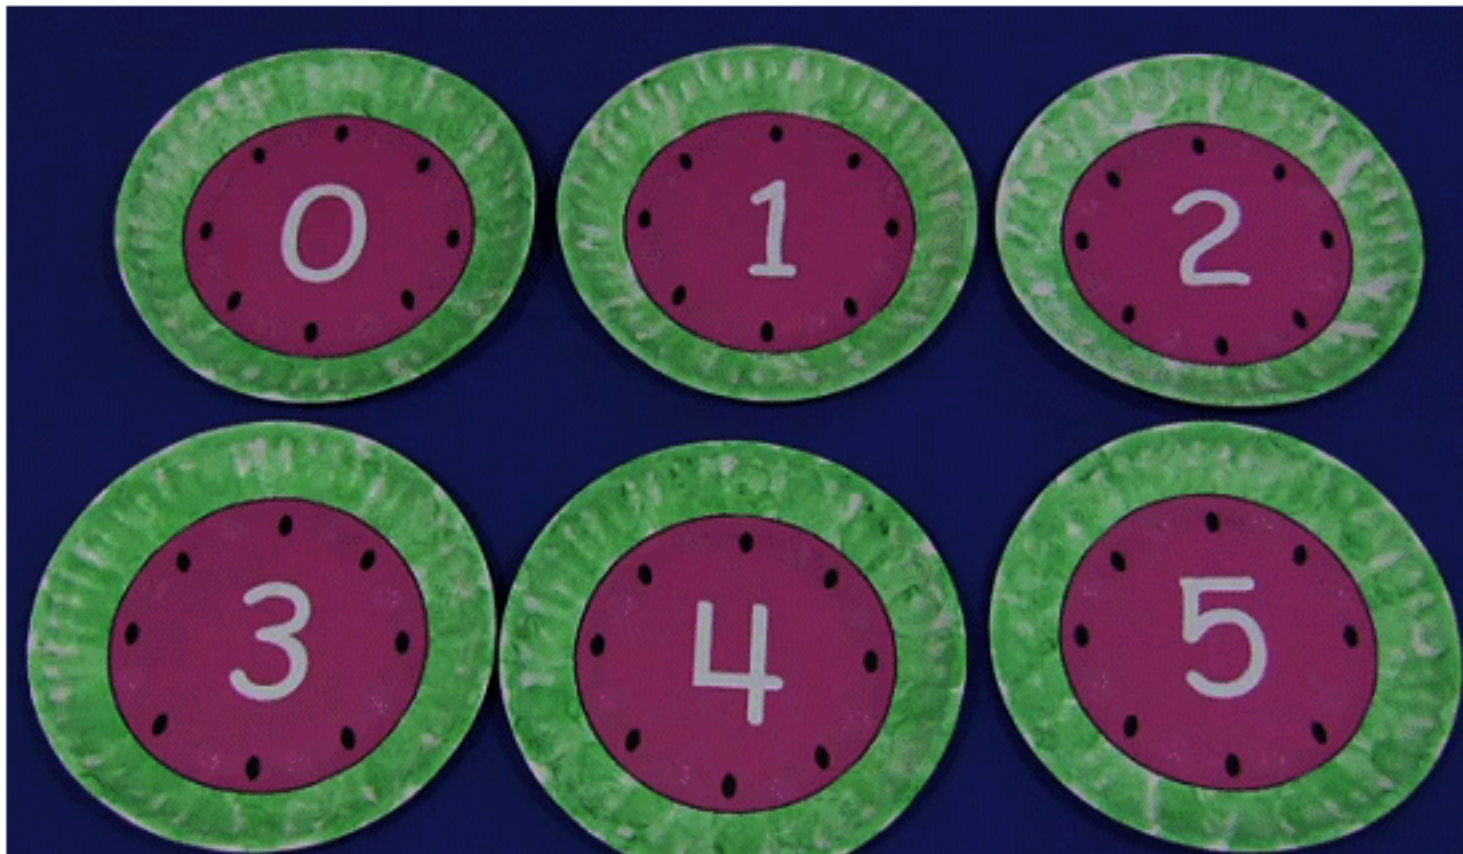

28

A circular watermelon slice with a pink rind, black seeds, and a green dotted pattern. The number 29 is written in white in the center.

29

Paper Plate Watermelon Numbers

Instructions: Paint the edges of small paper plates green and let dry. Print watermelon patterns ... cut out and glue on paper plates. Children can put the paper plates in numerical order. You can also put the correct number of objects in each plate.