

Who Took The Watermelon From the Picnic Table?

Children sit in a circle and and slap their hands on their legs and then clap until they have a good beat going the teacher starts first and name's the first child. The child that is called would then pick the next child and so on until all children have been called. The last child named would then say "I took the watermelon from the picnic table and it was yummy!!"

Remind the children that each child is only to be called on once so that everyone has a turn.

Who took the watermelon from the picnic table?

_____ took the watermelon from the picnic table (teacher calls out a name)

Who me? Yes you! Couldn't be! Then who?

_____ took the watermelon from the picnic table (student calls out a name)

Who me? Yes you! Couldn't be! Then who?

Who me? Yes you! Couldn't be! Then who?

Another way to play this game is for everyone to close their eyes and the teacher hides the watermelon behind a child's back and the other children repeat the song until the person with the watermelon is chosen. The person with the watermelon would then place the watermelon behind a different child's back.
