

Apple Playdough Mat

Instructions: Print on cardstock paper and laminate. Children form playdough into small balls to represent the apples. They then put them on the trees and baskets. We used dice to also turn this into a math activity. The children rolled the dice and then put the same number of apples on the mat. Once all of the apples were on the mat they then rolled the dice and removed the apples.